The Virginia Robinson Gardens, nestled on 6.2 acres in the heart of Beverly Hills, serves as an important horticultural research center for the Los Angeles County Department of Arboretum. The Beaux Arts style residence and lush grounds, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, provide a rare look at early Twentieth Century life. Funds from this event will help preserve the Virginia Robinson Gardens for the enjoyment of generations to come.

---

THE FRIENDS OF ROBINSON GARDENS
cordially invite you to attend

THE 1992 GARDEN TOUR
in honor of

DR. MILDRED E. MATHIAS
featuring a suite of the most beautiful gardens in Los Angeles

Friday, May 8, 1992
10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

"It being a hummy sort of day . . . birds singing . . ."

Indulge the senses . . .

Become immersed in the enchantment of seven imaginative, botanically diverse environments.
View the gardens in any order you desire.
Engage in conversation with California's most prominent landscape architects at each magical site.

While visiting the Virginia Robinson Gardens . . .
Enjoy tea and enticing savories by Rococo . . .
Delight in melodies of the salon . . .
Excite the eye with magnificent 17th, 18th and 19th Century botanical engravings . . .
Be entranced by the treasures of The Shop in the Garden . . .
(give some, keep some)
Wander among the exhibits and tableaux of Garden Ornaments . . .
Drink in the heady fragrance of Mrs. Robinson's herb garden . . .
Stroll into the quiet solitude of the exotic palm grove . . .
Discuss the wonders you have seen with guest of honor Dr. Mildred E. Mathias . . .
then move on to your next garden experience.